Beginning and experienced teachers new to Independent Schools, are invited to attend a series of workshops to assist them to "find their feet" in the Independent sector.

Just what is the difference between Independent Schools and other Schools? Topics that will be covered are: -

- About Independent Schools : Their distinctive culture and curriculum.
- About teaching in Independent Schools : Co-curricular, Pastoral Care.
- About the new teacher : Time management, organisational skills, Professional Development, the wider professional community, legal aspects of teaching.

THE PRESENTERS HOLD SENIOR POSITIONS IN INDEPENDENT SCHOOLS

When Monday 8th May, 2006, 3.30pm – 9.00pm (approximately)

Where Presbyterian Ladies' College, Sydney, McQueen Seminar Room, Boundary Street, Croydon

Cost $90.00 which includes dinner. Membership for 2006 of the Teachers' Guild is also included.

Current members of the Teachers' Guild $60.00

Senior members of staff are particularly invited to accompany new staff to the programme. We feel that this will strengthen and broaden the mentoring which is so essential to the successful induction of a new teacher.
