

Zoom into Guild Education Series

Free for Members and Non-Members

The online series will occur every month for interested educators with further details from the www.teachersguild.nsw.edu.au/educationseries

“Zoom into Guild Education Series” is a free monthly moderated virtual discussion hosted by the Teachers’ Guild of NSW on a range of education topics to help teachers and educators who are leading, preparing students and communities for the next generation.

Each session will have a different “theme” and include an exceptional panel of experts with diverse backgrounds in a challenging conversation on a selected education theme each month.

Some examples of the monthly themes/topics for the “Zoom into Guild Education Series”:

- Accreditation matters
- Digital technologies for teaching
- Early learning
- Educational research
- Equity issues
- Gifted education matters
- Higher education policy issues
- Human rights and education
- Indigenous education
- Local school and community planning
- Mentoring and coaching options
- Professional standards and teacher quality
- Pedagogy matters
- Remote and online learning
- Safety in schools
- School accountability
- Social media in schools
- STEM matters
- Student welfare and wellbeing
- Teaching and student learning matters
- Teacher evaluation issues
- Teacher welfare and wellbeing
- VET in schools